Five Area Students Go Abroad to Study

Five former El Camino College students have been selected to participate in the Education Abroad Program (EAP) of the University of California.

Eric Ronald Jacobson of Gardena, who attended El Camino in the summer of 1965 and now attends UCLA, will spend the next year attending the University's EAP center in Tokyo, Japan.

James M. Hansen of Hawthorne, who attended the fall semesters of 1962 and 1963 at El Camino and is now a student at University of California, Santa Barbara, will spend next year studying in Delphi, Greece.

Catherine E. Fuller of Torrance, who attended El Camino during the spring semesters of 1964 and 1965, is now a student at UCLA and will study next year in Bordeaux, France.

ANOTHER FORMER El Camino student, Cecily Anne Ballou, who now attends UCLA, will also spend her year studying at the campus center in Bordeaux.

Toni Lynne Ihara of Los Angeles, who was a student at El Camino during the spring semesters of 1964 and 1965 and is currently attending UCSB, will spend next year at the EAP campus in Padua, Italy.

Students selected for one of these programs must have records of high academic achievement and must show

Scouts Set Paper Drive

Boy Scout Troop 755 will conduct its annual paper drive Saturday.

Residents in the vicinity of 223rd Street School may leave papers on the curb Saturday morning. Scoutmaster Frank Marcus asked residents to telephone 320-5943 or 326-1886 to be assured of pick up.

that their personal educational objectives will be served by the Education Abroad Program of the University of California.
